Raymond Loewy - Double Sided Sideboard DF 2000 - 1965 by Doubinsky Frères, France

Each side of the board has 4 doors, each with a color gradation. With organically shaped handles integrated into the door surface. The inside is opulent, with canary yellow drawers and removable bottle holders. The lacquered metal base creates a floating dimension.

An incredibly impressive piece of design history, you can either place it at a slight distance from the wall or free-standing in a large room - where it unfolds its effect perfectly.

Good vintage condition.
